Class History

The Senior class has five members who started together in the first grade. They are: Roberta Garner, Betty Osborne, Bernard Maerkisch, Vilda Beckwith, and Keith Bischoff.

In the sixth grade, Robert Wade joined the class and in the seventh, Shirley Swaney. That now made a total of seven.

It was in the eighth year that Donald Smith entered our class, to be followed by Samuel Risner the next year, and Julia Predieri in our Senior year.

Our advisor in the seventh grade was Mrs. Gump; in the eighth, Mr. Ruggles; Mrs. Fernandez, Freshmen; Mr. Fernandez, during the Sophomore year, and Mrs. Woodworth in our Junior and Senior years.

In the last semester of the Sophomore year we chose our class rings which were received in the early fall of the Junior year.

The planning of our Junior-Senior Prom was the chief activity in the spring of the Junior year.

In December, 1949, we gave as our class play, "We Shook The Family Tree." Our Senior class play was "Professor, How Could You!" Both of these productions included every member of the class. Capacity audiences attended all performances.

Such is the history of our class. Only time can write its conclusion.

Class Will

We, the class of 1951, being of sound mind and body and acting under no fraud, duress, or under influence of any person whatsoever, do make, publish, and declare this, our last will and testament, on this twenty-eighth day of May, 1951, A. D.

I, Roberta Garner, do bequeath my ability for regular attendance at school, and good grades to Phyllis Minniear. See if you can break my record, Phyllis.

I, Samuel Risner, do bequeath my ability to cut up and get by with it to John Leak. I hope you can do as well as I did, Johnny.

I, Betty Osborne, do bequeath my quietness and mannerly disposition to Margaret Risner. May you use this for years to come, Margaret.

I, Robert Wade, do bequeath my heavy build to Haldon Smith. Say, Haldon, maybe padding might help.

I, Vilda Beckwith, do bequeath my pillows that I use while driving to Phyllis Edwards. Here's hoping that you can see over the dash board with them!

I, Bernard Maerkisch, do bequeath my great singing ability to James Wade. May you be as great as Jimmy Durante.

I, Shirley Swaney, do bequeath my temper to Roger Graham. May you learn to control your temper as I did mine.

I, Donald Smith, do bequeath to Betty Woodworth, "Just all my love."

I, Keith Bischoff, do bequeath my acting ability in high school plays to Helen Swaney and Roger Hershiser. Make sure you're completely dressed when appearing on the stage. (When I was a Junior.)

I, Julia Predieri, do bequeath my ability to speak Spanish to Vaughn Baker. See you in Mexico, Vaughn.

We, the entire Senior Class, do bequeath a large economy size bottle of "Hadacol" to the entire Junior Class. Maybe it'll give you a quick pep up.

We, the entire Senior Class, do bequeath our way to talk ourselves out of classes most of the year. Remember, when you get excused from classes you must work.

We, the entire Senior Class, do bequeath to the Freshman Class, our ability to serve an initiation supper promptly.

We, the entire Senior Class, do bequeath to the teachers, our "Time" magazines.

Class Prophecy

Ten years have passed since we left the crumbling walls of North Fairfield High School to enter our various vocations.

While on my job as a civil service secretary in San Francisco, California, I received a telephone call from one of my old classmates, Betty Osborne, who has joined the Waves. She told me that she had a week-end pass and asked if I'd like to start out and look for our old crew, the class of 1951. I told her that I'd be glad to accompany her.

When I got out of work, Betty was waiting for me in a jitney to go down to the subway station where we were ready to head for Goat Island. There we expected to find Vilda Beckwith.

While we were on the subway, we looked around and saw Don Smith, who was going to his naval store on the island. He asked Betty and me to take a look at the store. While we were looking around, we ran into Keith Bischoff, and had a good old-fashioned gab session. (If you know Keith, you will know what I mean.) He told us that he had just received his helicopter and asked us to take a ride. We told him we'd have to find Vilda first. Keith knew right where to find her so we stopped and picked her up as she was leaving her job as a private secretary.

As we continued on our way to the helicopter, we walked along the dock, looked out, and saw a ship coming in, so we waited to see if any of the crew was on board. As the sailors came off board, who should two of them be but Admiral Bud Maerkisch and Commander-in-Chief, Bob Wade. They were also off for the week end.

Now, everyone was with us to go for the ride except Sam Risner, Shirley Swaney, and Julia Predieri. Bud and Bob said they had heard that Sam had finally worked himself up to manager and owner of the former Smeltz's gas station back in our home county.

We all climbed into Keith's helicopter and took off for home. We found Sam slaving away at the station. He said if we'd wait a few minutes he'd take us to Bellevue where Shirley was living and having quite a time raising her kids. While visiting her, she told us that Julia was living on Mars. Since we were altogether, except one, we had to go see that certain one, Julia. Into the helicopter we jumped and headed for Mars. There, without much difficulty, we found her. She served us a very elaborate dinner in the Mars style.

Since we all had to be back at our jobs by Monday morning, we left Mars in time to get home for a much needed rest.

The time had been all too short, but even a big gab-fest had been better than nothing at all. After all, ten years had been a long time!

The Junior - Senior Prom

The Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Alpine Village, Cleveland, Ohio, May 6, 1950.

After having our pictures taken on the Cottage yard, we started to Cleveland in cars driven by the faculty. We arrived at the Alpine Village at 5:30, ate, and watched their floor show. From there, we went to a midnight movie and on to Howard Johnson's restaurant for refreshments. We decided then that it was time to start for home.

But upon our arrival in Fairfield, we went to the home of our Superintendent, Mr. Fox. We played cards while an early breakfast of waffles, pancakes, and sausage was being prepared. It was an early hour by the time breakfast was over and indeed time to call it a day long to be remembered.

O, Professor, How Could You!

A three act play,
by Anne Coulter Martens.

Men usually thought Vicky's pranks were cute, but Professor Perry curtly ordered Vicky to call and apologize or drop the course. Vicky sulkily obeyed. At the Perry home she overheard a bit of gossip. Professor Perry had been offered a deanship . . . if he can get a wife. His friend John and his family rallied around to help. John offers his secretary, a curly-headed little minx who can't spell . . . an ideal wife! Grandma's candidate is Tootsie Bean, a bit plump but a master hand with lemon chiffon pie. Vicky, longing for revenge, proposes a friend, Valerie, a Southern charmer, who makes a fool out of every man she meets. Grandpa won't tell the name of his candidate! Convulsing scenes follow: Tootsie appears with a pie for the Professor, her puglist brother sees to it that he eats it! The three candidates come to dinner and wheedle and flatter the embarrassed Professor. Grandpa makes each think the Professor has proposed an elopement, and they are all ready for the dash to matrimony! There was a lot of comedy as the irate girls face each other, especially when, to save the situation, John, dressed as a woman comes weeping in, trailing three small children after him and passing himself off as the Professor's long lost wife! The three girls console themselves elsewhere. In a whirlwind finish, Grandpa's candidate win's and the Professor finds a wife . . . the little spitfire Vicky.

In October we sold refreshments at the home baseball games. October 14th, eight of us; with Mr. Fernandez and Mr. McNutt, attended High School Day at Otterbien College. Our class rings were received during the month also.

In November, we planned a hayride for the public. As the weather would not permit the hayride, a party was held at the Home Economics Cottage. Also during this month we sold refreshments at the home basketball games. We did something different in the line of refreshments by selling popcorn.

In December, we had a Christmas party with the Sophomore class with Mr. and Mrs. Fernandez as host and hostess. This was a very enjoyable time for all.

January found us proud to hear that one of our class members, Betty Woodworth, had become an attendant to the queen of the Homecoming February found us working on our play.

In March we gave our play, "Alibi Bill," which was a great hit. A party was held after the last night of the play.

April found us working out plans for the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Prom was held the 11th of May and was enjoyed by all. The Prom breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Woodworth, Mrs. Woodworth being the advisor of the Senior Class. A lovely breakfast was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keiser held a steak fry for our class in the spring. It was fun for all of us and we wish to extend our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Keiser.

This brings us to the end of a year none of us will ever forget. It has been fun, as well as work, for all.

Junior Class Play

Alibi Bill

A 3-act farce, by Katharine Kavanaugh.

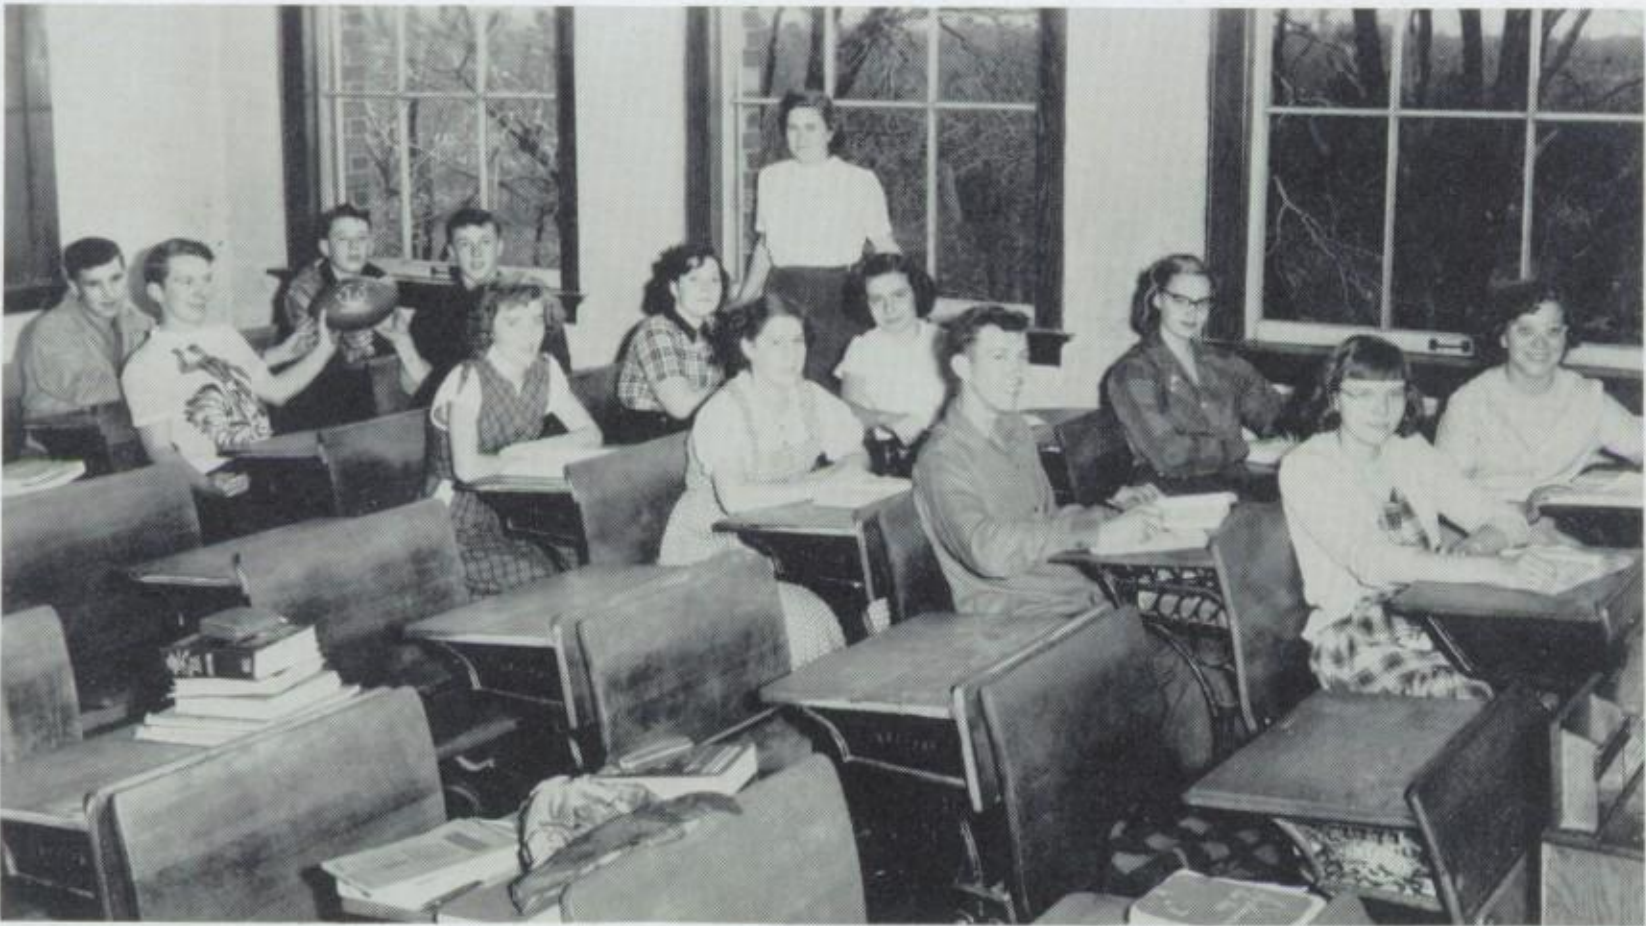

First, there's Bill Smith. Everyone just naturally loves Bill. Anyone with his capacity for blundering always has a host of friends! Jimmie is a mighty good scout, too; then there's Ned, the young man with too many fiancées; the cop with the slow-but-sure memory; a wise butler and perky maid, both good for laughs every time they show their heads; Mother-in-law, with her anti-man slant, is a good comedy part, and Bill's pretty wife and the two fiancées are snap parts for attractive girls of contrasting types. The harder Bill tries to get out of his predicament, the thicker grow the complications, and the louder and more frequent the laughs of the audience. Bill's really not done anything so bad, but we're forced to admit that appearances are pretty much against him—and the blonde curls would take considerable explaining in most any household. Even the slick Ned gets let in for some of the free trouble that's circulating all over the lot when his mother and sister mistake his former girl friend for the rich fiancée and receive her with open arms, and turn the real fiancée out as an imposter.

We try to operate in our classroom as a democracy. Each has freedom if he realizes his responsibility to others. We are learning cooperation, and hope we will be better citizens of the school because of our efforts this year. Our class projects are:

1. An exchange library.
2. Current events programs weekly using World Map of the Week.
3. Health activities in the classroom: We have learned many exciting new games that are not too noisy but give fine exercise. We have a daily check up of good grooming.

4. A science club to be organized second semester.
5. Creative work in English, some of which has been good enough to be sent to publishers.

Organizations

Betty Osborne, Roger Hershiser, Thomas Clemons, Larry Brown, Joyce Montgomery.

The Fairfield High School Student Council was organized this year with Supt. McNutt as the sponsor.

Each class was given representation in the council as follows:

Seniors: Robert Wade, Betty Osborne, Roberta Garner. Juniors: Roger Hershiser, James Wade, Phyllis Edwards. Sophomores: Thomas Clemons, Joyce Montgomery. Freshmen: Eugene Sands, Larry Brown. Eighth Grade: Ann Leak. Seventh Grade: Sandra Sanders.

The Council organized with the following officers:

President Robert Wade

Vice President Roberta Garner

Secretary Betty Osborne

Treasurer James Wade

The Council has worked on two main projects this year. The first was the establishment of a soft drink machine in the school. This machine may be used only at noon after everyone is through eating, and after school hours. The proceeds of the soft drink sales will be used to purchase needed equipment for the school as directed by the Student Council.

The Student Council sponsored the annual Homecoming basketball game this year. It was held with Greenwich on their floor, January 5th. President Robert Wade acted as Master of Ceremonies as Captain Sam Risner, of the basketball team, placed the crown on Roberta Garner, Homecoming Queen. Roberta's attendants were Betty Osborne and Betty Woodworth.

Through the sale of refreshments the Student Council netted $18.06 from the program. Pictures of the game and dance which followed are in the year-book.

Our Student Council meets regularly on the first Thursday of the month during the eighth period. The purpose of the organization is to aid and improve the conditions of the school by means of cooperation among the students with the faculty and administration. We are proud of our Council and its members.

The North Fairfield P.T.A. is functioning with a great degree of success this year. Donald Phillips is our President. He has been pleased with the number of parents who regularly attend the meetings on the third Thursday of each month at 8:00 P.M.

Mrs. Frank Hinkley is the Secretary-Treasurer. She has placed membership charts in each class room with stars after the student's name whose parents have joined the organization. The P.T.A. has sponsored several activities throughout the the year to aid in purchasing equipment for the school.

Mr. Fernandez, as program chairman, has arranged many very interesting programs for the regular meetings. One of the largest meetings was the annual Christmas program put on by the Elementary students on December 21st.

We all hope that our P.T.A. organization will continue to grow, and the spirit of cooperation between the parents and teachers will continue to improve.

The members of the F.H.A. have undertaken the raising of funds for the project this year which is to supply the Home Economics Cottage with a davenport and chair. We held a bake sale to help raise funds for it.

The F.H.A. gave the F.F.A. a pot luck supper which has been customary each year. Games were played and fun was had by all.

Last spring we served the annual banquet for the Baseball and Basketball teams for the good work they have done for us this year.

The officers of the F.F.A. are as follows: President, Robert Wade; Vice President, Bernard Maerkisch; Secretary, Donald Smith; Treasurer, Samuel Risner; Reporter, Larry Brown; Sentinel, Marvin Wheeler; Advisor, Mr. Flint.

Activities this year consisted of a pest hunt, a field trip to the Hoffman Farms, and participation in a parliamentary procedure contest at Wakeman. For this latter event we won the silver award.

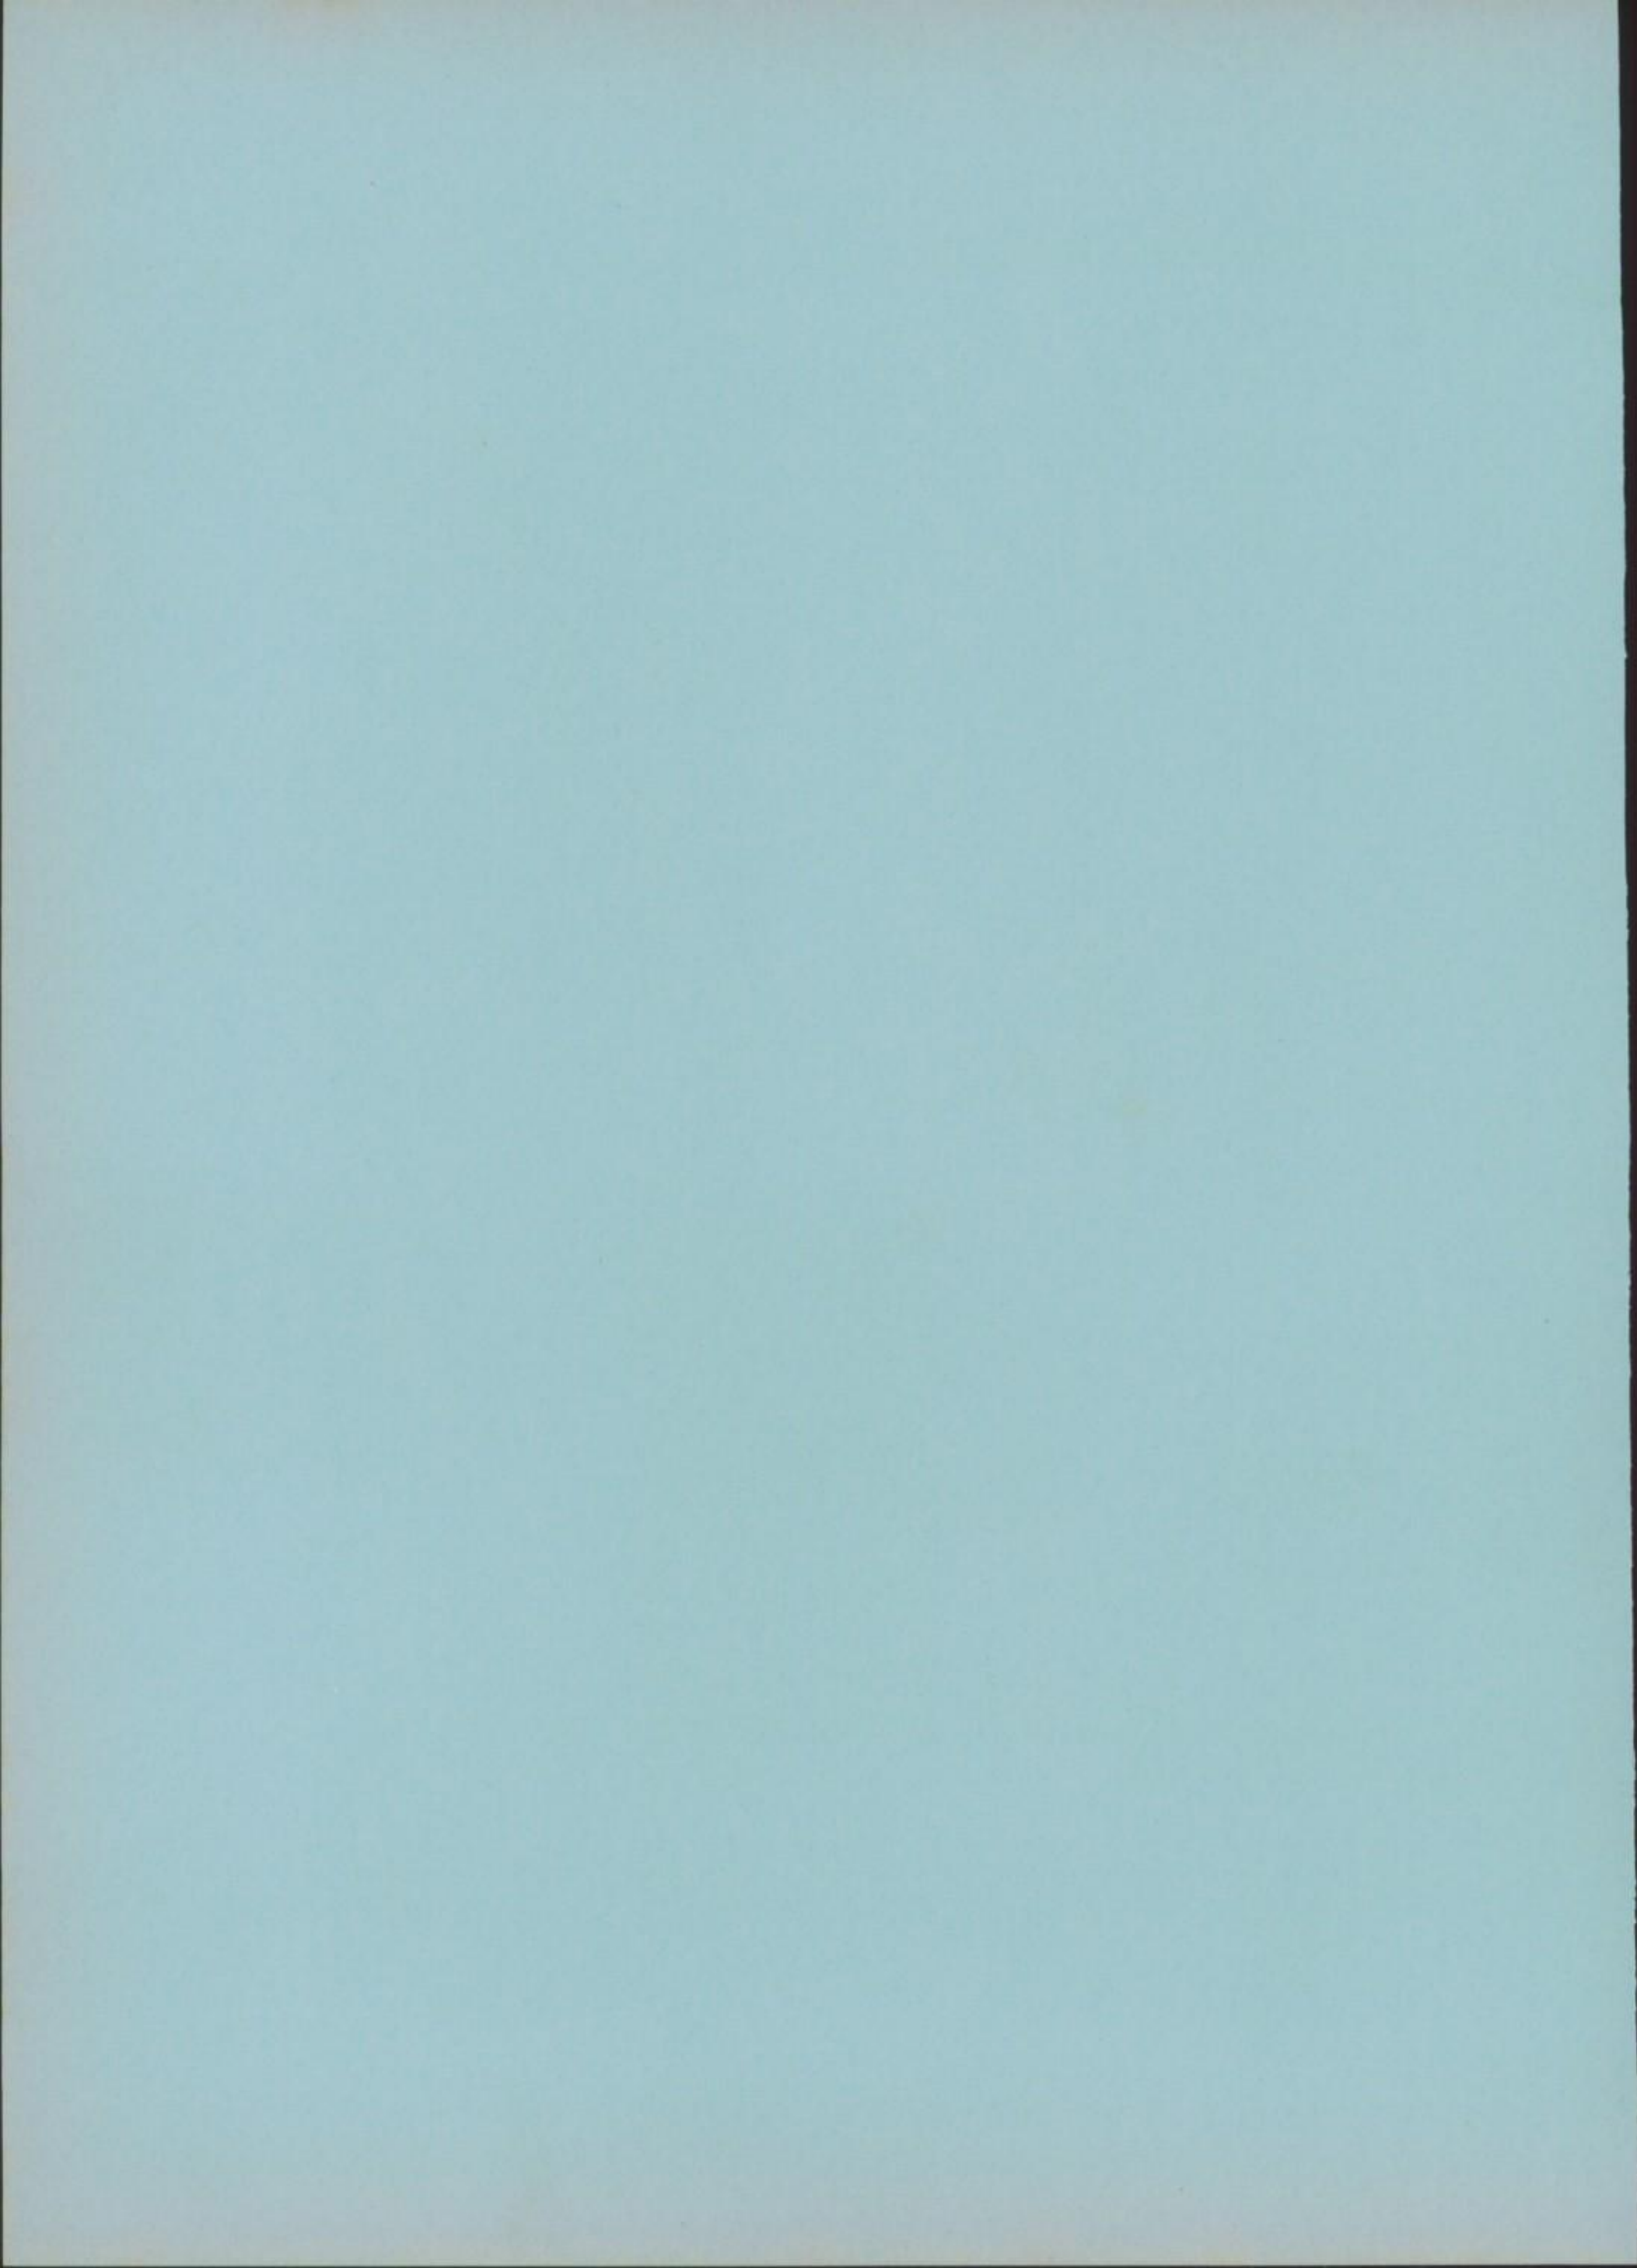

This year we are studying farm management and are using Don Smith's farm to study on with the help of the county conservation department.

In December, the Senior members of the F.F.A. presented a radio program over WLEC Sandusky, at which time we related our activities in the Farm Management Program.

Our parliamentary procedure program was presented before the P.T.A. as a part of its January meeting.

Our Baseball team played five games last fall. We won one, and lost four. We feel that our boys did a very good job, in spite of the tough breaks they had; however, most of the games were lost by a close score.

We are starting a Baseball tournament this spring to find which team will win the trophy of the year and then represent the county at the district tournament.
